PUBLIC SAFETY

Jim Cohen indicated the installation of the stop sign last month went well. Sewickley installed both cross walks and the signs. Jim indicated he wanted to put in the budget new street lines for next spring.

PUBLIC WORKS

John suggested we include in the 2024 budget money to pave a portion of Glen Mitchel Rd. In addition he is going to speak with Jeremy regarding his rates associated with services provided next year.

PUBLIC SERVICE

Mary is beginning the planning of the annual decorating of the Osborne Holiday Tree, working with the Cochran Hose Company and reviewing if there is a need for additional lights and decorations.

MAYORS REPORT

The Mayor reported the QVCOG dinner was to be held on October 5th at the Edgeworth Club. During the dinner Diane Vierling was going to be recognized as the recipient of honorary service award. It was suggested flowers be sent to Diane after the dinner. Holly, Barb, and Tom will attend on the Boroughs behalf.

ZONING UPDATE

Anne provided the draft of the zoning ordinance's to the committees to begin their review. The planning committee recommended approval with two minor changes. Council will be asked to vote on approving the revised ordinances at the November meeting. This is due to the required timeline to file with the County and then advertise to the public. It was noted Anne has done a terrific job coordinated this massive effort.

FINANCE

Holly handed out a draft of the 2024 budget. Discussion around capital expenditures occurred with the goal of not increasing taxes. The borough is in a cash positive position. Final budget will be reviewed at the November committee meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 PM
